Wildflowers of Spring

a special dinner with a presentation by Ted Watt

Friday, March 10

5:30pm - 8:30pm

The evening includes a delicious farm dinner and dessert

Tickets are $25 per person or $40 for two

Join us at the farm for a fresh cooked dinner and dessert followed by a slide show presentation by naturalist, Ted Watt.

Got the winter blues and longing for spring? Spend an evening with naturalist Ted Watt immersed in images of our most beautiful native wildflowers and learn about their natural history. Share information about the many species, where to find them and their roles in the complex ecology of our fields and woods. Ted is the Naturalist for the Hitchcock Center for the Environment.

For dinner, guest Chef Deborah Christakos, will be preparing a delicious vegetarian meal with an option of farm-raised lamb sausage or pork. Deborah is the founder of Cooking From Scratch, which offers hands-on cooking classes to individuals and groups in Western Massachusetts.

co-sponsored by the Hitchcock Center
EDUCATION FOR A HEALTHY PLANET

The evening menu will include Vegetable Tagine
fresh vegetables braised in an aromatic stock with Middle Eastern spices (though not "spicy") served on a bed of couscous and an option of farm-raised lamb sausage or pork Salad Greens with homemade dressings and a delicious dessert of Chocolate Brownies and Snow's Ice Cream along with Coffee & Tea
